Achieved departmental goals by managing work flow and resources to achieve departmental objectives. Supervision role to Superintendent level - Chief Geologist. Responsible for 3 direct reports and 15 indirect reports.

What experience do you have in strategic planning?

Big picture vision... Planned and set up mine geology departments for various mines. Mine geology enable the mine/company to define, mine and route ore to processing plant(s), to meet company metal production objectives. I am now looking at the strategy for Business Growth to enable the company to extend the current mine life.

What experience do you have in the area of finance?

Recent Capital Analyst for Cortez Mine.
Creating, reviewing and adjusting Geology Departmental capital and operational budgets.

What experience do you have in developing procedures?

Heaps - Developed mining geological procedures for various mine sites in Australia and now the US to standardize work flow. Varied between 20 -35 procedures.

What lessons did you learn from previous leadership positions?

It's not easy.
There is a difference between Leadership (Strategy) and Management (Tactics)

Why do you want to serve as a district officer?

To help if I can. To pass on what ever I have learned to others.

In your opinion, what are the district mission's major objectives and how would you work to achieve them?

Stick to the basics. Do the basics well and the rest will follow.
Focus on addressing each members needs first (what ever it may be - Don't assume) to retain membership.
Then focus on expansion.
Remind people to have fun.
